recovery that we really need in this country, then I'd like to hear some of your ideas. Chris Wallace:

Give me a break. The points I made are solidly grounded in fact. If there's no money in the Social Security trust fund, it was because we spent the money, and we didn't save it. We borrowed the money. And now when we're calling for a Congress that would approve spending that will get us back to full employment, it's pretty hard to accuse me of hypocrisy when I'm calling for a Congress to support Medicare and Medicaid for all. I mean, this, Mr. President, is a top-to-bottom comprehensive
